

A Study of Applicability and Acceptance of Open Source Content Management System Software in India with special reference to Higher Education Institutions in Vidarbha

Name

Qualification ***

Name of Institute where u r working ***

City ***

Teaching Experience (No. of years) ***

Do you ever use the student intranet or website to make course material available to your student?

- Yes
- No

Are you Aware about Content Management System?

- Yes
- No

Note: For this following form, I am using likert scale, in which

1: Strongly Disagree;            2: Disagree;    3: Neutral;    4: Agree;    5: Strongly Agree

Statement	1	2	3	4	5
3. Content Management System is useful in higher education
4. Content Management System helps to improve quality of learning.
5. Content Management System is very much needed in higher education
6. I Can readily identify opportunities in my subjects for the use of Content Management System.
7. Content Management System helps to track and monitor learners' progress.
8. Students can catch up on missed lecture with the help of Content Management
9. Content Management System helps to Work collaboratively with peers outside of the classroom.
10. Students can submit their assignment on time.
11. Content Management System is too time consuming to use in teaching and learning
12. There is an expectation amongst college management that lecturers should use E-Learning tool like Content Management System in teaching and learning.
13. Student expect lectures to use Content Management System as an e-learning tool in teaching
14. Content Management System allows lecturers to manage their own modules so that they can make several different types of learning activities available to the students
15. Faculty members use Content Management System to increase both the transparency of their course and students accountability
16. Content Management System provides suitable framework for teaching and learning
17. Content Management System Includes Students to spend more time with the course material
18. Content Management System provides greater feedback facility to student to enhance their learning

Which CMS you are using?

- Moodle
- Joomla
- Wordpress
- Drupal
- Other